

Money raised for MACS goes towards helping our members

We recently held a successful sausage sizzle fundraiser at the Bunnings Warehouse in Stafford. The money raised will go towards improving our service and fleet of vehicles, allowing us to deliver our mobile drop-in service 365 day a year.

We wanted to offer a special thank you to the Kedron Scouts Club for sharing their knowledge and eskies with us, as well as Bunnings Warehouse for hosting our event.

Meet Purna

"I've been a Mobile Care Attendant for 4 years, and I still love what I do every day. It makes me so proud to help people in the disability community live their life on their terms."

In his spare time, Purna enjoys writing scripts for films, acting, cooking and – most importantly – spending time with his wife and daughter!

Have you worked with Purna before? We'd love to hear about how he's helped improve your quality of life!
